Oakland offers advanced degrees

It's never too late to learn, and at Oakland University there are 29 advanced programs where you can receive degrees at the master's, specialist and doctorate levels.

Choose from degrees in subjects like business administration, computer engineering and science, music, engineering, education and math.

Oakland has been in existence for 25 years and caters to full-time as well as part-time students. They schedule classes so that even those who work full-time during the day can still complete a degree while attending classes in the late afternoon and evening.

Tuition is $60 per credit hour for state residents and $120 per credit hour for non-residents.

In addition to on-campus classes, graduate courses are also taught in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Clarkston, Farmington, Pontiac, Romeo, Royal Oak and Sterling Heights.

For more information call Oakland University at 377-3166.
